Dear Caroline:

As you are aware, the FCC issued regulations under the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") which established limits on the amount of commercial matter in children's programming and which requires recordkeeping procedures to be observed by cable operators with respect to children's programming during the forth calendar quarter of calendar year 2008.

This letter will serve as formal notice to you that THE WEATHER CHANNEL does not currently contain any "children's programming" (as defined by the FCC). Re: Children's Television Act of 1990 & Closed Captioning Certification for 2008 – 4th Quarter

Dear Ms. Murphy:

This notification is to inform you of YES Network's compliance during the fourth quarter of 2008 with the requirements of the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act"). This is to advise you that YES Network does not carry any programming that would qualify as children's "programming under the applicable rules and implementing regulations of the Federal Communications Commission." See 47 CFR 76225, Note 2 (children's programming is "programming originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and younger"). As a result, the programming carried by YES Network is not subject to the requirements of the Act, and the compliance certification statement you have requested is not applicable to YES Network.

Further, this is to certify that as a standard practice, YES Network carried ten or more hours of closed-captioned programming per day during the above referenced calendar quarter. Accordingly, solely in respect of its carriage of Network, Time Warner Cable is in compliance with the closed captioning requirements set forth by Section 79.1 of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations (the "Regulations").

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 646-487-3674.

Yours truly,
